The Devonport Neighbourhood Team has teamed up with two local lads, training for their first boxing award. They said “the session was really good and we had to work very hard”.

The boxing sessions focus on non contact training, skills and fitness aimed around achieving three awards under the supervision of boxing tutors from the Devonport Neighbourhood Team. On completion of the first three awards, participants can go on to earn a further three awards whilst training with a boxing coach from Devonport Boxing Club.

Simon Barrett, Marlborough Street’s Traditional Greengrocer, donated fresh fruit for the end of the training session and is working closely with the team to promote healthy eating.

For further information about the Boxing Award Scheme please contact PC Cher Dunbar.
